

Track Summary

Track 1: Let Me See (Ooo Girl Bad)

This is a song about getting to dance with the hottest girl at the party. As the song flows it shows how I am not easily impressed but the entrance of “THE girl” immediately has my attention and curiosity piqued causing me to have to rally to outshine all the would be suitors to get that dance.

Track 2: Kiss Down Low

Somewhat self-explanatory, this is a musing on all the wonderful things that can happen as kisses travel down a woman’s body.

Track 3: Stalker

It is a thin line between stalking and trying to get a woman’s attention to prove your love. This song represents a clarification of all the clumsy steps men sometimes take to demonstrate their affections.
